Summary	In the Thai So community, there were many buffalos. One year, many buffalos died. A mass of vultures came and ate intestines of the dead buffalos. One orphan walked by and hit a dead buffalo. The vultures got frightened and flew in the air. The orphan saw it. He then pulled grass, pushed it into the buffalo's rectum, and closed it. He hit the buffalo again. The vultures flew into the sky again. When Konkamud flew up in the sky, he wondered how he could go down to the ground. So, he removed grass from the dead buffalos' rectum. The vultures were able to come down to the ground.
